We have recently had new flooring put down in the entrance of the House. This makes it much easier for members who have scooters and walkers to enter the House more safely. It has given the House a new look.

We would like to thank Lendlease for all the great donations to the House. They have been kindly sending donations through out the year to help our community. Those who have received the donations are very much appreciative.

"Practical Work Pathways" will continue through term 3 and 4 in partnership with Yarraville Community Centre. Each Wednesday at 12.30pm.

BMNH Playgroup is on every Monday school terms only. We are discussing with Maribyrnong City Council to have a Maternal Child Health Nurse attend the playgroup in term 4. Please contact for further information. We will advise everyone when this will begin.

BMNH Christmas Party will be held in December. More information will be announced.
